TRICK OR TREAT!

(We're LIVE as of 10/16/06)

Version 3.1 is here!
Just when you thought you'd mastered 3.0 and here we go again!
The good news is you're gonna love it!
Version 3.1 is very user-friendly and offers a lot of new and cool events to make your docketing easier. So what's the bad news? There is none!!! (Trick or Treat!)

In this issue of the BUGLE we're going to give you as much information on the new events as possible, and some will include more detailed explanations (as needed). As usual, we encourage you to call the Help Desk with questions or problems. We understand that during transitions such as these, more help may be needed and the Court staff is always willing to provide assistance. Do not hesitate to call!

DOCKETING CHANGES...

When you have filed a deficient petition and you have to docket the balance of schedules and statements, you will now be required to docket each Schedule and Statement individually. This also applies to Amendments to petitions.

...and MORE

Miscellaneous Motions and

Applications events are now gone.

There may be additional events added in upcoming BUGLE issues, but at press time this is a list of the many new and improved events that have been added by Version 3.1 to make docketing a little easier.

DOCKETING NOTICES

There is still some confusion on how to use this category. There are many kinds of Notices in a bankruptcy or adversary case. These events are broken down as much as possible to allow you to use them with very little enhancement and also match your pleading title.

Whenever you have a notice, please remember to check under the NOTICE
category first to see if there is a choice that meets your docketing needs.

Here is one example:

Notice of Entry of Order. Choose:
ENTRY OF ORDER, NOT Notice and
then enhance "of Entry of Order".

And as always, be sure to add "with Certificate of Service" if appropriate!

ECF PASSWORDS

Remember to change your ECF password at least quarterly...in case some unsavory character gets a hold of it!

FILING FEES

You may use any major credit card to pay your electronic filing fees.

The Court does NOT keep your credit card information on file.

If your account remains unpaid by the next business day you will be locked out of the system. To unlock your account, log in to CM/ECF, click on UTILITIES and then on INTERNET PAYMENTS DUE. Proceed to pay your balance. When you have received confirmation of payment, all filing screens will be open for additional filing.

Procedures for accepting payment for filing fees through CM/ECF are issued at the national level - the Court did not set up local procedures.

OOPS!

ERRORS

In previous issues of the BUGLE we have stressed the importance of calling the HELP DESK to report a docketing error you have made instead of trying to "fix it" yourself. The HELP DESK reports a significant increase in e-filers who are calling (or e-mailing) to report their errors. We really thank you all! In the interest of saving time for our e-filers, when you leave a detailed message on the HELP DESK voice mail your errors are noted and reported to the Quality Control section for correction. Please do not be concerned if you do not get a confirmation call from the Court - if the error is correctable without a call-back from the Court we will do so and not waste your time. We really appreciate all of the positive feedback on this matter! Keep up the good work!!!

STRANGE MESSAGES...

If you have attempted to upload a PDF which exceeds 3 mg. size limit, you will receive an error message. You will have to break the document into smaller increments. Beware of a lot of black or gray areas, photographs and fine print - they can greatly increase the size of your document

This concludes the October issue of the BUGLE. We hope you have found it informative. Further updates will be posted in the November BUGLE as they become available.

If you have any questions or need docketing assistance, please call the HELP DESK at 866-232-1266
