DOCUMENTS POSTED FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

The Bankruptcy Court has posted three documents for public comment. The comment period is open until November 13, 2020.

- Local Rules Redline
- Proposed Chapter 13 Presumptive Attorney’s Fee Guidelines
- Annotated Mortgage Modification Program Procedures

These documents include significant changes to current procedures, and the Court would like the public’s input before they are finalized.

The documents and the link to submit comments are on the court’s website: <https://www.nvb.uscourts.gov/rules-forms/rules/local-rules/public-comment/>.

IMPORTANT

PREPARING FOR NEXTGEN CM/ECF

NextGen CM/ECF is coming soon. In order to make the transition smoothly, there are some important steps you can take to prepare now.

NextGen requires each electronic filer to have his/her own individual PACER account. If you do not have an individual PACER account, you must create one before the court moves to NextGen. A firmwide or shared PACER account cannot be used by electronic filers once the court has moved to NextGen. This includes limited user accounts and filing agent accounts. Firms may establish a PACER Administrative Account (PAA) to help manage individual attorney accounts and to have PACER access fees billed to a central firm account. If you do have an individual PACER account, you must make sure that account is an upgraded PACER account. For more information on NextGen, please visit: <https://pacer.uscourts.gov/file-case/get-ready-nextgen-cmefc>.

Prepare now:

- Register for your own individual PACER account or Upgrade your individual PACER account
- Know your current login and password for Nevada Bankruptcy Court's CM/ECF system
- Know your individual PACER account login and password

Do not save your login and password information to your browser. Once the court goes live, you will be using your PACER login and password to access CM/ECF. Further information will be posted on our website under the NextGen tab in the near future.
