REMOTE HEARINGS

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada continues to conduct hearings remotely. Hearings are held by telephone or video conferencing, unless otherwise ordered by a judge.

To ensure parties and attorneys have an accurate dial in number or video conference information please visit <https://www.nvb.uscourts.gov/calendars/court-calendars/>. Select the hearing judge, next click on the pdf image of the calendar to access the hearing judges' dial-in number for AT&T teleconferencing phone number and access code or the Zoom link and dial-in numbers.

Instructions for appearing via telephone are available on the court's website at:

www.nvb.uscourts.gov/news-rss/announcements/2020/0319-court-hearing-participation/.

Online calendars are updated daily. Consequently, the calendars may be modified several times prior to the actual hearing date. Court Calendars are provided as a convenience to the public and the legal community and are subject to change without notice.

For questions regarding a calendar hearing, contact the judge's Courtroom Deputy at <https://www.nvb.uscourts.gov/about-the-court/contact-information/>.

IMPORTANT

COMPENSATION ORDERS

The Clerk is required by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2013 to maintain a public record listing fees awarded by the court. When attorneys file an order for employment under their name but the order or motion for compensation has their law firm's name, the accuracy of the fees report is compromised.

In order to be added to the docket, attorneys should file a Notice of Appearance for the firm. This will ensure that the correct party is picked when the compensation order is docketed, and the fees report will remain accurate.

POVERTY GUIDELINES FOR 2022

The Poverty Guidelines for 2022 are now available on the Court's website. The poverty guidelines are needed by persons seeking fee waivers when filing for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Guidelines can be found at: 2022 Poverty Guidelines | U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of Nevada \(uscourts.gov\).
