SELF-CALENDARING DATES

The self-calendaring system allows both counsel and parties to schedule hearing dates for most matters heard on regular notice without having to contact the court to obtain a hearing date.

The following matters are available for self-calendaring:

- Avoid Lien
- Chapter 13 Application for Compensation
- Chapter 13 Objection to Claims
- Chapter 13 Plan Confirmation
- Loan Modification
- Relief from Automatic Stay
- Value Collateral

Note: Any motions relating to an involuntary case should not use the self-calendaring system, instead click here to Request a Hearing Date for other types of hearings.

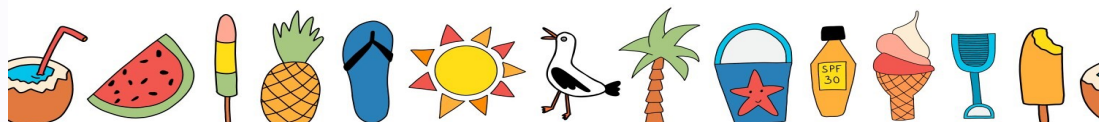

To find details about your case, such as the judge or chapter, log into PACER.

Search for Available Date and Time

You may search for a hearing date based on the judge assigned to the case, chapter and matter type. Upon selection of an available date and time, counsel should serve proper notice of the matter in accordance with Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Rules.

Verify that you are selecting the correct location for the case, for example case numbers that begin with 1 are for Las Vegas and 5 for Reno, with the exception of some cases assigned pursuant to Local Rule 1015.

For more information on the calendar system, visit: <https://www.nvb.uscourts.gov/calendars/self-calendaring-dates/>.
