XII. Effect of MMP Participation

A. Automatic Stay

1. Upon entry of the Order referring the case to the MMP, the automatic stay as provided for under 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) is modified to the extent necessary to facilitate the MMP, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
2. After entry of the Order referring the case to the MMP, unless the Court orders otherwise, all pending motions for relief from the automatic stay with respect to real property subject to the MMP will be continued until after such time that the MMP is completed. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the pendency of the MMP will constitute good cause and compelling circumstances under 11 U.S.C. § 362(e) to delay the entry of any final decision on a pending motion for relief from stay with respect to real property subject to the MMP.
3. During the pendency of the MMP, no motion for relief from stay may be filed on an ex parte basis with respect to real property subject to the MMP. Any Creditor seeking relief from the automatic stay prior to the conclusion of the MMP must, in a motion filed, served, and noticed for hearing pursuant to Local Rule 9014, set forth the reasons why relief is appropriate prior to the conclusion of the MMP.

4. If a relief from stay motion pursuant to section 362(d) is pending when a MMP Order is entered, or if such a motion is filed during the MMP Period, the Court may condition the stay upon fulfillment of the Debtor's obligations under the MMP Order. If the Debtor fails to comply with the Debtor's MMP duties or the MMP Order, the Creditor may file a Request for Mortgage Modification Status Conference (NVB 105-20) with the bankruptcy court. Additionally, unless the Creditor specifically objects in writing, it is deemed to consent to a waiver of the deadlines set forth in section 362(e) of the Bankruptcy Code until thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the MMP.
- B. No Delay – Referral of a case to the MMP does not relieve the parties from complying with any other Court orders or applicable provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, General Orders or the Bankruptcy Local Rules. Notwithstanding a matter being referred to the MMP, proceedings in the bankruptcy case must not be stayed or delayed without further order of the Court.
- C. Closing – If Debtor's bankruptcy case is otherwise in a posture for administrative closing, the case will remain open during the pendency of the MMP, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

XIII. Responsibilities and Compensation for Debtor's Counsel

- A. MMP Responsibilities – Debtor's attorney will be responsible for performing the following services with respect to the MMP:
1. Determine Debtor's eligibility to participate in the MMP;
 2. Use the Document Preparation System to complete Initial MMP Package;
 3. Prepare all forms required for submission on the Portal;
 4. Submit all required documents and communications through the Portal;
 5. Prepare, file, and serve the Motion for Referral to MMP (NVB 105-2);
