The Court having been advised by the Acting United States Trustee for Region 17 that authorized depositories are no longer willing to waive fees and service charges incurred by Chapter 7 Trustees on money of estates on deposit with such institutions, and that the United States Trustee Program has temporarily suspended its policy prohibiting bank service fees charged to trustees by authorized depositories on Chapter 7 bankruptcy estate accounts, it is ORDERED that the Court shall retain authority to review and approve such expenses during the administration of the case.

This Administrative Order is effective for all Chapter 7 cases currently pending or filed after the date of this Order.
